THE NB HOME SUPPORT ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

The New Brunswick Home Support Association (NBHSA) held its Annual General Meeting on Thursday, October 20th in Saint John, New Brunswick and is pleased to announce the appointment of three new board members.

Yolanda Lindsay of Red Cross, Erin Riley-Doiron of Riley Home Health Services and Gaétan Pelletier of Restigouche Home Care are the newest members of the NBHSA Board of Directors.

The NBHSA board mandate is to provide clear flow of communication for all agency members, to share ideas and strategies and to act as a liaison with other Home Support Associations in Canada. The NBHSA acts as a consultant to agencies, individuals, provincial associations and government at all levels on all issues related to in-home support services.

October 20, 2016, Trade & Convention Center, Saint John NB: Minister Lisa Harris (Minister of Seniors and Long Term Care, Minister responsible for Celtic Affairs) addressed the delegates of the New Brunswick Home Support Association's conference; mainly comprised of Home Support Agency Owners and Operators from around New Brunswick. Minister Harris spoke of the need to ensure good quality care to the seniors of our province in their homes as well as the importance of the role of the Home Support Workers who provide the direct service to the seniors at home in our communities.
